CRS handles each process from beginning to end so clients can focus their attention on running their business.

The Stark Agency is locally owned and has been serving retailers throughout Wisconsin and the upper Midwest since 1948. Pauline Kussart has owned the agency since 1998.

Jack Femyer, Stark's Manager of Check Recovery Solutions, is the primary contact for check clients. Prior to joining Stark in 2004, Jack was with Piggly Wiggly in the Janesville, Edgerton and Fort Atkinson stores. Jack is the past president of the Wisconsin Collectors Association and serves on the board of directors of the Financial Crimes Investigation Group.

CREDIT BUREAU REPORTING

CRS reports to the three major credit bureaus—Equifax, Experian & Trans Union—and lists commercial accounts with Dun and Bradstreet.

CRS also offers a variety of standard collection services including:

- Letter service
- Phone calls
- Skip tracing
- Asset searches
- Litigation Services Management

These services are all designed to help you manage and recover your accounts receivables.

The Check Recovery Solutions Advantage:

- Free on-site consulting and training
- Free educational seminars
- Free customized reports
- Free Client Web Link
- Rebate for MHA members
- Same day notification of bad checks

As the only collection agency member of the Financial Crimes Investigation Group (FCI), CRS works with authorities throughout Wisconsin and northern Illinois to identify and stop bad check writers.

CRS views their clients as true partners and are committed to their success.

If you have never worked with a collection agency or are not satisfied with your current debt collection partner, contact Jack Femyer today to learn how CRS can help you become more financially successful.
