Dues paid to the Midwest Hardware Association are not tax deductible as a charitable contribution. They may, however, be deductible as an ordinary and necessary business expense.

Your annual investment includes membership in the North American Retail Hardware Association and monthly subscriptions to NRHA's Hardware Retailing magazine (a $50 value) and the MHA's Association eHELPS newsletter.

The annual investment in membership shall be computed on your total net sales of the past year. There may be deducted from such total, the sales obtained in such line or lines for which you have membership in another retail trade association; but sales of paints, appliances, sporting goods or other lines usually stocked by hardware retailers may not be excluded in computing your annual sales volume.
